- develop an appropriate working relationship with performers, based on mutual trust and respect.
- make sure all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part.
- promote the positive aspects of the sport (e.g. fair play).
- display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- follow all guidelines laid down by the national governing body and the club.
- hold the appropriate, valid qualifications and insurance cover.
- never exert undue influence over performers to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibitive substances.
- encourage performers to value their performances and not just results.
